

Oh Muslims!!!

We believe it is not the time right now to argue about different opinions and different schools of thought. It is not the time now to be in the same web which the Ummah (Muslim Population) and mankind are falling into.

It's not the time to try to achieve any goals according to sharia'h (Islamic Law), unless we develop our faith and the reality of our deen (way of life) first.

We want to be able to go to Allah and say:

"O'Allah we are trying to spread your Mercy! O'Allah we are trying to avoid being the cause of fitna'h (tribulations)."

Well; we embrace this message, because this message doesn't belong to any group, ideology, hezb, jama'a, Sheikh or anyone.

This message is basically toward the reality of going back to Allah.

As a first step may Allah allow us to continue until we reach the end by His will, tawfeeq (ability/permission), light, wisdom and power. Allah promises the victory to the believers.

"We believe we have to spread the peaceful message, the real message: the one that can offset the distortion, the violence, and the misunderstandings of today."

We believe people have to see, feel, and know the true message of Islam away from political agendas of violence, terrorism and misconception.

First we believe people have to hear the message the way it is and then, if Allah the Almighty, the Creator, showers you with the truth, the light, the wisdom, and the vision, He will allow you to do whatever pleases Him.

We are not an organization, we are not affiliated to anyone, and we are not calling for anything except for the belief and the Mercy of the Creator.

We are trying to save mankind (both Muslims and non Muslim) from the torture of the Creator and to bring them to His mercy and pleasure.
